Company	Aflatoun International
Location	Amsterdam, The Netherlands
Job type	Research Assistant
Salary	Junior / recent post graduate level
Comment	Estimated Start Date: Immediately
Deadline	21-08-2019

Organisation

Aflatoun International is a non-profit organisation, which offers social, financial & entrepreneurial education to children and young people worldwide, empowering them to make a positive change for a more equitable world. Aflatoun creates high-quality curricula, for different age groups, which are contextualised to local needs and specific circumstances, and are implemented by over 250 partner organisations in 101 countries, reaching 8.6 million children (2018).

Aflatoun is commissioning an advocacy document for the social and economic empowerment of children for their upcoming international summit to be held in the Netherlands in October 2019. This document will be targeted towards donors, practitioners and policy makers working in children's education and economic development. To attract a wide readership, we would like this document to be written in a concise and accessible manner, complemented with aesthetically pleasing layout and graphics.

For this purpose, Aflatoun is looking for a research assistant(s) to help in the analysis of research reports, data sets and good practices from organizations working to advance the social and economic empowerment of young people. This assignment will be carried out over the months of August and September 2019.

Desired Skills or Qualifications:

- A university degree relevant to international development, education and economic empowerment for children and youth.
- Proven working experience within an academic institution or non-profit organization (self-employed with proven portfolio also accepted).
- Proven experience in the synthesis of research findings and the analysis of various data sets.
- Successfully manages their time, work flow and schedule in order to meet strict deadlines.
- Resourceful: Able to problem solve and find solutions, especially under narrow parameters or strict budget restraints.
- Proficient in English.
- Must be allowed to legally work in the Netherlands.
