

Partnership Fees and Benefits

I. License Fee

Aflatoun's license fee is based on the annual income of the organization, and is determined by the previous year's financial report.

License fee categories are as follows:

- Category 1: Country offices of an INGO, for-profit organizations, or Organisations with annual income of €2 million or more pay the license fee of €2500 per year;
- Category 2: Organisations with annual income of €250 000 - €1 999 999 are eligible for a license fee of €750 per year;
- Category 3: Organisations with annual income of less than €250 000 are eligible for a license fee of €250 per year.

II. Benefits

By joining Aflatoun, partners benefit from having a direct influence on and connections with global Social and Financial Education activities. As an Aflatoun partner, you will gain access to a global network of like-minded organizations from different sectors —all interested in deploying resources more strategically and focused on advancing social and financial education for children and young people. As Aflatoun works to build an even stronger partnership network, we have developed a new and enhanced framework for our partner benefits. These benefits focus on two main areas: Knowledge & Insights and Networking.

Knowledge and Insights:

- Full access to Aflatoun's core learning materials on Social and Financial Education and supplementary materials that are developed for each learning material:
 - Aflatot (children ages 3-6);
 - Aflatoun (children ages 6-14 for formal settings);
 - Aflateen (Young people ages 14 and above);
 - Aflateen digital (eLearning platform www.aflateen.org);
 - Aflatoun Non-Formal Education (children ages 6-14 tailored for non-formal settings);
 - Life skills and financial education for peace (children ages 12-16 and above);
 - Core curricula that the organization will develop in the future.
- Unlimited access to Aflatoun's research reports and case studies;
- Peer to peer learning through case studies and periodic complementary webinars;
- Priority to co-create research and publications on the latest Social and Financial Education topics by joining Aflatoun's research working groups;
- Electronic Newsletters and member Updates;
- Discount to Aflatoun Training workshops;
- Access to Secretariat team members for advice in areas of programme development, curriculum and monitoring and evaluation and research;
- Updates and insights into latest policy issues on social and financial education at a global level;
- Invitation to collaborate with Aflatoun in its work through the national policy nexus;
- Permission to use Aflatoun brand for your publications and wider communication.

Networking

- Access to Aflatoun's International Meetings;

- Access to Aflatoun's Regional and Sub regional Meetings with a discount fee;
- Access and priority for speaking opportunities on panels at regional and international events;
- Access to the full database of Aflatoun's partners filtered by geography, area of interest etc;
- Share your events with Aflatoun community through the different communication outlets;
- Featured in new member section of Aflatoun's regional and global newsletters;
- Your Impact promoted through Aflatoun's through the different communication outlets.

III. Additional Services

Aflatoun International will also offer additional services including Training, Curriculum contextualization, Monitoring & Evaluation and Research. These services are not included in the partnership fee. The cost for these services will be decided based on the nature of the services required and the level of engagement by Aflatoun International.